

PROGRESS TOWARDS DEGREE

Students who are accumulating more than the minimum number of credits required to earn a degree (120) are expected to be taking courses required for graduation. The University reserves the right to refuse the registration of a student not complying with this expectation.

(Policy change effective 11/1/06).

Degree Time Limitation: Students matriculated in a bachelor's degree program at the University who fail to maintain enrollment for two (2) consecutive semesters are administratively withdrawn from the University and must apply and be accepted for readmission before they will be permitted to resume their studies.

In order to earn the degree, the student will be expected to meet:

- Major Requirements
- Degree requirements
- General Education requirements

If the student has been separated for 3 years (6 consecutive semesters) or less, the student may be admitted to the same major plan of study, degree program and General Education program in effect at the time of their separation from the University. However:

- If major requirements have changed since the student's separation, the original plan of study may no longer be available. In some cases, amending the original plan of study is possible at the discretion of the appropriate department chair. If amendment is not possible, the student must declare a new major.
- If the original major is no longer offered, the student must declare a new major.
- If degree requirements have changed, exceptions and waivers may be made by the appropriate academic dean.

If the student has been separated for more than 3 years (6 consecutive semesters), the student must meet all of the major, degree and General Education requirements in effect at the time of readmission. Exceptions may be made at the discretion of the appropriate academic dean.

(Policy change effective March 2009; procedural updates entered August 2019.)

Course Time Limitation: If an undergraduate has been gone for more than seven (7) years, all of the completed courses may not be honored. Exceptions to this may be made at the discretion of the appropriate academic dean.

(Policy change effective March 2009.)
