

MINOR IN DISASTER STUDIES

(18 credits)

| Code  | Title   | Credits   |
|---|---|-----------|
| Required Core Courses (6 Credits)  |   |           |
| DIS333  | Disaster Psychology                                     | 3         |
| DIS492  | Practicum in Disaster Response <sup>1</sup>             | 3         |
| Additional Core Courses (9 Credits)  |   |           |
| Students are encouraged to complete at least one core course that focuses on developing multicultural competence. |   |           |
| Select at least three (3) courses from Category II:   |   | 9         |
| ANT214  | Principles of Cultural Anthropology                     |           |
| BLK100  | Intro To Black Studies                                  |           |
| BLK271  | Black Sociology   |           |
| BLK285  | Introduction to African Psychology: A Cultural Approach |           |
| GEO201  | Human Geography   |           |
| GEO231  | Geography of Hazards                                    |           |
| The following Category II courses have prerequisites or restrictions:   |   |           |
| ANT403  | Religion and Culture                                    |           |
| CMM359  | Communication Among Cultures                            |           |
| GEO341  | Introduction to Geographic Information Systems          |           |
| POL301  | State and Local Politics                                |           |
| POL310  | Public Management                                       |           |
| POL319  | Politics and Media                                      |           |
| PSY332  | Mental Health Professions                               |           |
| PSY384  | Health Psychology                                       |           |
| PSY392  | Internship  |           |
| PSY492  | Crisis Intervention                                     |           |
| SOC350  | Introduction to Human Services                          |           |
| Elective Courses (3 Credits)   |   |           |
| Select at least one (1) course from the Category III list below or one additional course from Category II above.  |   | 3         |
| BUS250  | Principles of Management                                |           |
| CMM202  | Interpersonal Communication                             |           |
| SOC220  | Social Inequality in the United States                  |           |
| The following Category III courses have prerequisites or restrictions:  |   |           |
| BLK420  | Counseling Underrepresented Students                    |           |
| CMM358  | Conflict Management                                     |           |
| PSY221  | Social Psychology                                       |           |
| SOC323  | Death in American Society                               |           |
| SOC370  | Sociology of Families                                   |           |
| SOC431  | Mass Media and Culture                                  |           |
| Total Credits  |   | 18 |

practicum it is expected that students will make themselves available for emergency response in the event of a local disaster.

<sup>1</sup> Practicum will emphasize preparation, crisis intervention, and response to potential emergencies and disasters. Students will spend eight (8) hours per week in the field at a designated site. Under advisement, students will have the opportunity to give service to the American Red Cross or to the county or New York State Emergency Management offices. All students will meet as a group with the practicum coordinator for discussion and group supervision. During